To whom it may concern

This is to state that Mr. Wladimir Kraus was Assistant Instructor of Economics for the Master of Science in Comparative Law, Economics and Finance at the International University College for the Term October-December 2008.

The quality of his contribution to the course was of a very high level, which corresponds to the high level of satisfaction of his students and of the colleagues with whom he collaborated.

In particular, his approach to tutoring and teaching was punctual, committed and enthusiastic. Mr. Kraus proved to be resourceful, knowledgeable and eager to pass his knowledge on to his students.

In faith,
